

Returning for a Second Year!

Prematurity Prevention Initiative ECHO

Join our collaborative educational series to learn strategies to reduce preterm birth and improve outcomes for families across New Jersey.

ECHO sessions & Community Chats:
Select Wednesdays
12pm-1pm via Zoom

Starting June 17, 2026

Why Participate?

- Enhance Your Skills through up-to-date education on preterm birth, its causes, early warning signs, and effective prevention and management strategies.
- Increase Awareness of strategies to prevent and manage chronic conditions to reduce preterm birth and improve health outcomes.
- Connect Resources and education to pregnant and parenting individuals and families.
- Collaborate with a Multidisciplinary Network of likeminded healthcare providers and community-based organizations committed to caring for mothers and babies at risk for preterm birth.

Our Program:

Series Leaders

For information on our multidisciplinary team leading the sessions, please click here.

Topics

Join our ECHO sessions and Community Chats to learn more about preterm birth and how to support parenting and pregnant individuals and their families.

You can access the full curriculum here.

Continuing Education

CME, CNE, CPE, and Social Work credits are available.

The Prematurity Prevention Initiative is a program of Family Health Initiatives supported by funding from the New Jersey Department of Health. Family Health Initiatives is a subsidiary agency of The Cooperative. thecooperative.org. 2026. Co-sponsored by Rutgers Center for Public Health Workforce Development.

REGISTER TODAY!

go.rutgers.edu/PPI-ECHO

In support of improving patient care, this activity has been planned and implemented by Rutgers Biomedical and Health Sciences and Family Health Initiatives (a subsidiary agency of The Cooperative). Rutgers Biomedical and Health Sciences is jointly accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), to provide continuing education for the healthcare team.

Learn more:
projectecho.rutgers.edu

